NOTICE OF SUPPLEMENTAL AUTHORITY IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO DISMISS AMENDED COUNTERCLAIMS
AND FOR JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

Plaintiff Golden Star Wholesale, Inc. submits the attached records from the U.S. Copyright Office as supplemental authority in support of its pending dispositive motion. As official governmental records not subject to dispute (indeed, Defendant Rani authored them), the Court may take judicial notice of them under FRE 201. The records are copies of the deposits that Rani submitted along with its applications for the copyrights at issue in this case—applications that were filed only after the litigation began. At significant expense to itself, Golden Star requested copies of these deposits from the Copyright Office in April 2020, but the Office only fulfilled the order on November 10, 2020, shortly after the Court held argument on Golden Star’s motion.

The deposits are relevant to the motion because they demonstrate that the scope of Rani’s already-dubious copyright is even narrower than what Rani claims. “Rani asserts that the copyright claim is supported by the shape of the can, the blue background, colored droplets, sliced fruit, the word ‘floats,’ and the name of the fruit, among other things, all arranged in a unique manner.” DE 36, PgID 302 (emphasis added). Yet the scope of Rani’s copyright protection is limited to its deposit, which must be a “complete copy” of the work. 17 USC §408(b). The deposits Rani filed include only “the blue background, colored droplets, sliced fruit, the word ‘floats,’” but not the remaining elements. This further narrows the scope of any copyright Rani can assert in this case, therefore making Rani’s copyright infringement arguments even less plausible.

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff Golden Star Wholesale, Inc. respectfully requests that this Court grant the relief sought by its motion.

Respectfully submitted:

Date: November 19, 2020
